BELLES MEMORIES

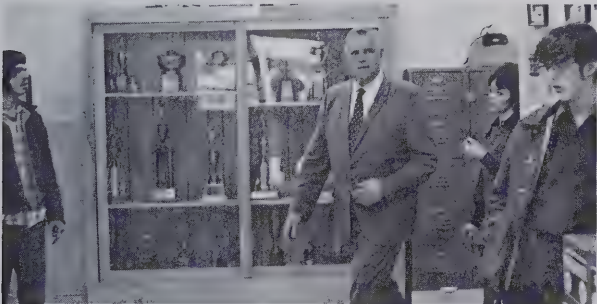

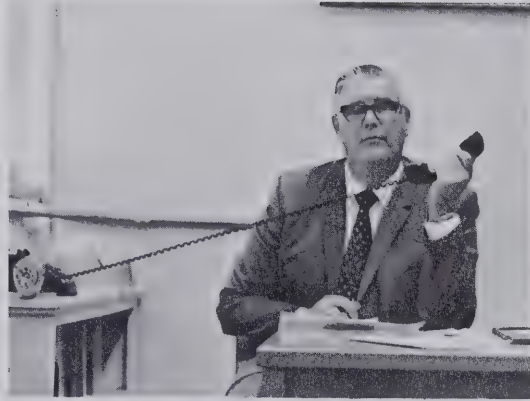

Oak Hill Schools
Morganton, N.C.

Volume XXI
1973

Dedication

We, the staff of the 1973 BELLES MEMOIRES, appropriately dedicate our last issue to two people who have attempted to make our sojourn at Oak Hill High School memorable—Mr. William F. Brown, Jr. and his secretary, Mrs. Linda C. Byrd.

We shall always remember Mr. Brown for his “bigness”—his “bigness” of stature and of heart.

He is a man who is willing to give anyone the benefit of a doubt; he is willing to give anyone a second chance. He has faith in individuals and that faith, plus foresight and preparation, has helped Oak Hill students to live in harmony with and have respect for each other. With this dedication, we wish to express our appreciation for his efforts, his energies, his time, and his talents used in behalf of Oak Hill students.

Dedication

To Linda Byrd, we dedicate this issue “with love.” She is a kind and gracious friend to students and faculty. Her cheerful smile and easy-going manner can make anyone feel “welcome.” Her willingness “to help” often carries her “beyond the call of duty.” We shall remember her for her kindness to everyone. Thank you, Linda Byrd, for your ready smile and warm reception—anytime we approach you.

To you both, we dedicate this BELLES MEMOIRES as a token of our esteem.

A tribute to Miss Margaret McGimsey upon being chosen Burke County's Representative for Teacher of the Year.

INTERESTED . . . CONCERNED . . . FAITHFUL

Interested

In flowers and children and things
Such as butterflies with shiny wings
Or the problems of a tiny child,
Or the playful antics of a colt gone wild.

Interested

In the affairs of state,
Or how her children rate
In the field of rhetoric and rhyme,
Or in wise spending of their time.

Interested

In the happiness of kith and kin,
And in erasing evil and sin,
And living by God's Holy Word,
And watching the flight of a lonely bird.

Concerned

When others suffer pain and woe,
Or have a tough row to hoe,
Or when some small child lacks the will
His potential to fulfill.

Concerned

When talent's going to waste,
And when students refuse to taste
Of the store of knowledge everywhere,
But never guilty of total despair.

Concerned

About her church's fate,
So she has worked early and late
To do her part at every turn
To teach others God's concern.

Faithful

In her tasks at home and school;
"Do your best," is her rule,
"To help others along the way
In whatever you do or say."

Faithful

To her moral code
In sharing someone else's load
And urging each boy and girl
His own banner to unfurl.

Faithful

To the task at hand,
Working and slaving to beat the band
To further each and every cause
With much gusto and little pause.

Interested, concerned, and faithful

Are words that denote in full
The life that is lived to serve
With each sinew and each nerve,
And little hope of earth's acclaim
Or ravings about widespread fame;
So list her name beside Abou,
For she loves her fellowman too.

—Mary S. Reep

IN MEMORIAM

Miss Charlie Mae Whisnant

CLASSROOM OF LOVE

There must be a roomy classroom
Up in the land above
That is filled with fun and laughter
And lots and lots of love,
For from an earthly classroom
Thou hast called a teacher grand
To teach all the little angels
With a firm and loving hand.

There must have been a classroom lacking
Just the light and delicate touch,
For Thou hast called a teacher
Who was needed very much
To teach our children manners,
And how to work and play,
And never, never, grumble,
But have pleasant things to say.

There must be a classroom golden
That needs a jewel in its crown,
For Thou hast called a teacher
Whose equal could not be found

For teaching Susie how to pray,
Or Johnny how to read,
Or inspiring each child's wonder
In the planting of a seed.

There is a classroom up in the sky
That's manned by a teacher true
Who has soothed the path for many
When everything was blue,
And gently, gently pushed
The timid little child
With her friendly, friendly smile
Or an urging – gentle and mild.

There is now a glorious classroom
In the heavens up above
That is filled with fun and laughter
And lots and lots of love,
For our beloved Charlie Mae
Became its teacher – just the other day.

The F.F.A. is an intra-curricular activity having its origin and root in a definite part of the school curriculum — Vocational Agriculture. Among other things, members learn through active participation how to conduct and take part in public; to buy and sell cooperatively; to solve their own problems; to finance themselves; and to assume civic responsibility. The foundation upon which the F.F.A. is built includes leadership and character development, sportsmanship, cooperation, service, thrift, scholarship, citizenship, and patriotism.

The Student-Faculty Relations Committee was established to allow individual students or groups of students an opportunity to present their views or opinions on issues confronting the school. Our committee is composed of two faculty members and two students from each grade level, one black and one white. The president of the student council is an ex officio member of the committee. One of the faculty members serves as chairman of the committee. An issue which affects the welfare or learning environment of a large portion of the school is presented in a written statement to the chairman of the committee. The committee meets, discusses, and recommends courses of action to the principal.

The 1973 BELLES MEMOIRES staff has sincerely tried to bring you an annual that you will be proud of. In keeping with tradition, we hope this yearbook will earn its rightful place as one of the best annuals ever. In breaking tradition, we hope we have brought you, in a new, different, and interesting way, the life and heartbeat of Oak Hill School — its students.

This year's BELLES MEMOIRES is yours. It is not mine, it is not the annual staff's, but yours.

I wish to express my appreciation to all the staff. They have spent many long hours to bring this book to you.

A special thanks goes to the assistant editor and to the business manager.

Two people to whom a very special thank you is due are Mr. William F. Brown, Jr., who has allowed us to be out of class so much to complete this work, and Mrs. Rachel Lyons, whose unique quality of understanding and patience has guided us through this ordeal.

Again, as this is the last edition of BELLES MEMOIRES, I hope it shall also be the best, bringing you much enjoyment and happy memories.

Senior Class of '73

Some often overlooked people are our "Lunchroom Ladies." They seldom receive the praise that is due them. Visitors comment on the service and tasty food of our cafeteria. Credit is due, in part, to our cafeteria manager,

Mrs. Myra Rhyne Kincaid. She has spent the past 21 years pleasing Oak Hill appetites. By attending special classes, she has mastered the business of planning menus and effectively operating a cafeteria. The county has recognized her dedication and has appointed her the new cafeteria manager for Freedom High.

We commend Mrs. Kincaid and all her staff for their meticulous preparation of our food and for their service. We are also extremely appreciative of their smiles and kind gestures.

The efforts of teachers' assistants often are unnoticed. However, any teacher who has used their services know their value. To Mrs. Faye Leonhardt and Mrs. Hazel Davis, we would like to say "Thanks."

In Appreciation

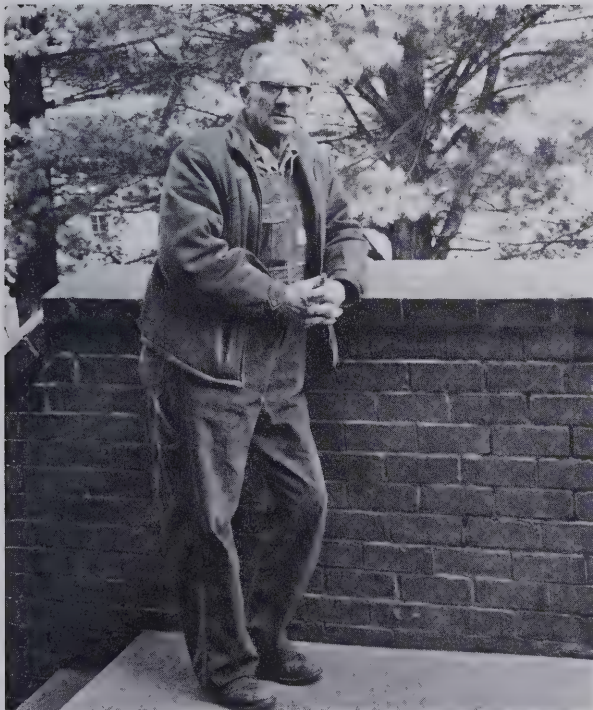

Mr. Z. T. Henson

The 1973 BELLES MEMOIRES staff wishes to express their sincere appreciation to Mr. Z. T. Henson for the donation of his darkroom facilities for our use. We also wish to thank him for making the homecoming pictures and some of the sports pictures.

We are pleased to know that our community supports our school and that Mr. Henson is a credit to his community and a life long friend of ours.

Again to Mr. Henson, we say thanks.
